

Old Gourock and Ashton Parish Church

*“A place to believe and a place to belong;
a place to grow and a place to serve!”*

WELCOME TO WORSHIP!

Intimations – Week Beginning 13th October 2019

- 1. Informal communion will take place after today's service.
- 2. Tea/coffee fellowship will take place in the Arran Hall after the service. All are welcome.
- 3. Under the auspices of the Fuzzy Parish, i.e. all of the Church of Scotland congregations between Westburn on Nelson Street and Skelmorlie and Wemyss Bay, there will be a Harvest Pot Luck Supper in our Arran Hall this evening at 6.30pm. The idea is that everyone brings something for a meal and all of the food goes into the kitchen and it's pot luck what you get back! Please also bring a donation of tins etc. for the Foodbank.
- 4. The Guild – The Guild are hosting an Afternoon Cream Tea in aid of Macmillan on Tuesday 15th October at 2.15pm. All are welcome.
- 5. Erskine Hospital - There will be a Coffee Morning to support Erskine in the Arran Hall on Thursday 24th October 10am-12noon. Tickets costing £2 are now available from committee members or you can pay at the door. There will be a stall selling Erskine Christmas Cards etc, a home baking stall and a raffle. Please come along and bring your friends. All are welcome.
- 6. World Mission Committee - The first fundraising brunch of this new session will take place on 27 October. This event will be hosted by the World Mission Committee and everyone is warmly invited to come along for tasty food, a chat and a chance to support the work of the Vine Trust.

Intimations for next week – please email secretary@ogachurch.org.uk by Wednesday evening.

A very warm welcome to any visitors worshipping with us this morning. Please give our greetings to your own congregation and sign the visitors' book to let us know where you have come from
